Dorothy Marie Hendrix Hope was born in rural Bulloch County and descends from a long line of Bulloch ancestors. She is the daughter of James Lee Hendrix, Sr., and Mildred Elizabeth Hagan Hendrix and the grand-daughter of Walter Lee Hendrix and Marie Eads Burch Hendrix, and John Wesley Hagan and Josie Elizabeth Davis Hagan. Her early education was in the public schools of Bulloch, Screven, Grady and Bryan counties and she earned her B.A. from Wesleyan College in Macon Georgia and her M.A. from the University of Kentucky. A librarian by profession she currently holds the academic rank of University Librarian and is Chair of the Resource Services Department in the George A. Smathers Libraries of the University of Florida. She is married to G. Marion Hope who was reared in Pembroke, Georgia.

THE STORY OF BULLOCH COUNTY was written by Leodel and Brooks Coleman and published by The Bulloch County Historical Society in 1973.
